

TMF

Stewarding Potential

Asking Better Questions about Congregational Worship

Our TMF blog shares stories and essays inspired by our purpose: to help individuals, families, congregations and like-minded organizations achieve their God-inspired potential. In this post, TMF Vice President and renowned worship leader John Thornburg tells a personal story of his own, an "ah-ha" experience that led him to ask better questions and to create truly transformational programming.

Read more

More stories by TMF and friends. . .

TMF grant helps bring the spirit of Matthew 25 alive in Clovis, New Mexico

How one congregation embraced the Bible passage, "I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me."

Read more

View the interview of Randall Partin, Provost of the New Mexico Conference

Lisa Greenwood, TMF V.P. of Leadership Ministry, interviews Provost of the New Mexico Conference, Randall Partin prior to the Denominational Leaders conversation on 1/16/17. The gathering explored the intersections between leaders of traditional faith traditions and social innovators.

Watch Video

December Gathering: Notes from the Field

Read about the December 2016 conversation at Harvard, facilitated by Angie Thurston and Casper her Kuile, that preceded our Denominational Leaders gathering in January 2017. Download Angie and Casper's new report in which they share their learning from that gathering. And stay tuned for a new report from Angie, Casper, Lisa Greenwood and Gil Rendle about learnings from the Denominational Leaders conversation.

Download Your Copy

We're Social!

We're social and sharing the good news of God's abundance. Tune into our Facebook page for news on our grant recipients, leadership ministry events, and more.

Facebook