

TMF

Stewarding Potential

Planting a Tree for Future Generations

Our TMF blog shares stories and essays inspired by our purpose: to help individuals, families, congregations and like-minded organizations achieve their God-inspired potential. In this post, Senior Pastor Stan Cosby discusses how a loan from TMF helped Saint Stephen UMC in Amarillo grow and transform its congregation to meet the needs of a growing community.

Read more

More stories of transformation . . .

Transformational Philanthropy

When a ministry's great need fulfills the passion and values of givers' hearts, we see God's hand at work in our world. In this post, John Rivas shares his thoughts on the importance of Transformational Philanthropy.

Read more

View the interview of Angie Thurston and Casper ter Kuile

Lisa Greenwood, TMF V.P. of Leadership Ministry, interviews Harvard Divinity Ministry Innovation Fellows Angie Thurston and Casper ter Kuile prior to the Denominational Leaders conversation on 1/16/17. The gathering explored the intersections between leaders of traditional faith traditions and social innovators.

Watch Video

Dr. Gil Rendle Learning and Leadership Endowment

In recognition and celebration of all that Gil Rendle has done for the church, TMF recently announced the creation of the Gil Rendle Learning and Leadership Endowment. It honors Gil's legacy by supporting his work to create opportunities for TMF to open new paths of discernment, decision-making, and action by leaders in connection with TMF's Leadership Ministry.

Give Today

From the Prison Yard to the Pulpit

Life Church in Waco brings God's life-changing love to a community struggling with poverty, addiction and crime.

Read more